

Graham Corner

Managing Director

Graham is responsible for the Black Mountain offices in Hong Kong and Singapore which together provide a range of management services throughout the Asia Pacific region.

Over the years Graham has advised a diverse range of international and local companies on their HR needs and he regularly consults on HR outsourcing process management, employee benefits provision and HR transformation. He is an accomplished public speaker across a variety of HR related subjects.

Graham maintains professional qualifications from the Pension Management Institute (APMI), and holds a Financial Planning Certificate and Securities Brokers Examination Certificate.