

Olivia Rowan

General Manager Singapore

Olivia has over 10 years business management and human resources experience in both large international organizations and SMEs in Asia Pacific.

She has worked in a human resources department of a large international organization, and has experience with a wide range of HR functions. Olivia also has a strong consultancy background in human resources and organizational development and has also managed a successful consulting company prior to joining Black Mountain.

Olivia's experience is complemented by her tertiary studies in Human Resources and Management and holds a Bachelor of Management.